The University Mace and Batons

The mace and batons are symbols of the authority and history of the University and are made from balusters from the original main staircase of Old Main, erected in 1875, the oldest University building now standing. The batons are carried by members of the faculty who have served as chairs of the Campus Council or the Campus Faculty. The mace is carried by the chief marshal, who is the current chair of the Campus Faculty.

Marshals’ Gowns

The gowns worn by the marshals are of the traditional University color, cardinal red.

Honor Stoles

White or cardinal stoles denote students who are candidates for University Honors. Cardinal represents Honors (cum laude) and white represents High Honors (magna cum laude). White stoles with cardinal and white cords represent Highest Honors (summa cum laude).

Academic Regalia

The styles of gowns differentiate degree level. Trim of doctoral gowns indicates nature of degree (black or royal blue — Ph.D.; light blue — Ed.D.). Certain members of the faculty wear distinctive gowns and hoods authorized by their doctoral institutions. The lining of the hood denotes the color(s) of the institution awarding the degree. The official colors of the University of Arkansas are cardinal and white.

The color of the velvet band around the hood designates the academic degree of the wearer. Some examples are listed below:

Agriculture	Maize	Medicine	Green
Architecture	Blue Violet	Music	Pink
Arts and Letters	White	Nursing	Apricot
Business and Bus. Admin.	Drab	Pharmacy	Solid Green
Economics	Copper	Philosophy	Royal Blue
Education	Light Blue	Physical Education	Sage Green

The University Song

In 1909 a prize of fifty dollars was offered for the best poem relating to the University of Arkansas that should be capable of being set to music and used as a college song. Out of many entries, that of Mr. Brodie Payne '06, of Hot Springs won the prize. The words were set to music by Professor H. D. Tovey, Director of the Conservatory of Music and Art at the University.

Alma Mater

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the mountains of God
Over the Fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod.
Beacon of Hope in the ways dreary lighted;
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us—
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.

We, with our faces turned high to the Eastward
Proud of our place in the vanguard of Truth,
Will sing unto thee a new song of thanksgiving—
Honor to God and the Springtime of Youth.
Shout for the victory or tear for the vanquished;
Sunshine or tempest thy heart is e'er true;
Pride of the hills and the white-laden Lowlands—
Mother of Mothers, we kneel unto you.

Ever the Legions of Sin will assail us,
Even the Battle in Cities afar;
Still in the depth will thy Spirit eternal
Beckon us on like a piloting Star.
Down the dim years do thy dead children call thee,
Wafted to sleep while the Springtime was new;
We, of the Present, thy Hope of the Future—
Mother of Mothers, we pray unto you.

The University Seal

The Seal of the University of Arkansas is affixed to each diploma and is stamped in gold on each diploma cover. The central element in the Seal is the front entrance to Old Main, the oldest building on campus.

In 1963, she moved to Arkansas, earned a master's degree in political science from the U of A in 1967, and began teaching. She was named three times as "Outstanding Faculty Member" by students and became one of the first recipients of the Fulbright College "Master Teacher" award.

Blair has published two books, "Silent Hattie Speaks, The Personal Journal of Senator Hattie Caraway," Greenwood Press, 1979, and "Arkansas Politics and Government: Do the People Rule?" University of Nebraska Press, 1988. She is the author of numerous articles dealing primarily with Arkansas, state and local government, and women in politics.

Blair was appointed in 1971 by Governor Bumpers to chair the Governor's Commission on the Status of Women, in 1976 by Governor Pryor to chair a Commission on Public Employees Rights, and in 1980 by Governor Clinton as commissioner of the Arkansas Educational Television Network, on which she served until 1993 and chaired in 1986 and 1987.

ELLEN LOUISE GILCHRIST
DOCTOR OF ARTS AND HUMANE LETTERS

Ellen Gilchrist is among the nation's foremost writers of the literary generation that succeeds Styron, Welty and O'Connor. Her writings instruct that one might seek a challenge, speak out when others remain silent, find a joy of place, of reading itself, and of storytelling. Born in Vicksburg, Miss., the roots of her literary career lie in her childhood home, the bayou of the delta region.

Gilchrist received a B.A. in philosophy from Millsaps College in 1967. Her writing career began when she won a poetry award at the University of Arkansas in 1976 and the Craft in Poetry award from the New York Quarterly in 1978. With the publication of her second book, "In the Land of Dreamy Dreams," University of Arkansas Press, 1981, her career was launched. She has one volume of poetry and 18 fiction titles under her pen. Her most recent novel, "The Cabal and Other Stories," was released this spring by Little, Brown and Company.

Her significant contributions to the world of literature have been in the genre of the short story and novel, in which she often portrays through vivid idiomatic writing the role of a woman as someone powerless but able to overcome adversity. Her work is laced with humor and clearly drawn insights into human behavior.

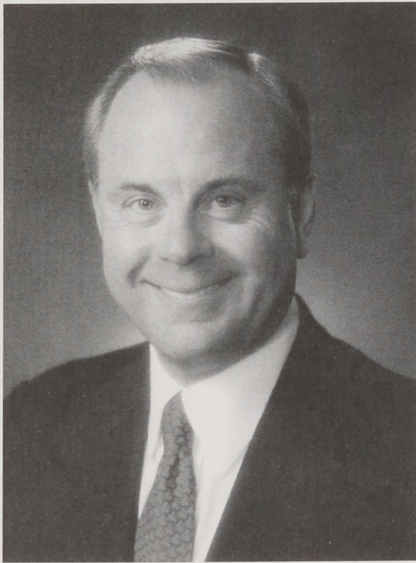

Gilchrist has read her work widely, most notably at the University of Arkansas, the Arkansas Governor's School, the University of Southern Illinois, and the University of Nebraska. In 1984, she began broadcasting commentaries on "The Morning Edition" on National Public Radio. She is the recipient of the prestigious American Book Award for "Victory Over Japan" (1984) and a fellowship from the National Endowment for the Arts. Gilchrist lives in Fayetteville.
